

Throughout the election season, Mark Hyman has been using his position to spew foul commentaries against Sen. John Kerry. I sent an email to our local channel six abc affiliate, thinking he was some local crackpot. Now, I find he is a big shot syndicated in numerous markets. I agree he has the right to free speech. But, what about equal time? If he can run an anti-Kerry documentary, then a pro-Kerry documentary should be broadcast at a similar time on the grounds of fairness.

Thank you.
